HARRIMAN'S RETURN

Great Interest Taken in His Arrival From Europe
Today.

ANXIETY AS TO HIS HEALTH

Railroad Magistrate Is Called "The Biggest, the Brainiest, the Most Patriotic American We Have"
Wall Street Disappointed.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Aug. 23.—As the Kaiser Wilhelm II hourly draws near to her pier in New York, great interest of E. H. Harriman's return grows acute. The general anxiety as to his health has found expression in a series of published appreciations of his personality and achievements such as probably never before has been accorded a private citizen. There is manifest disappointment in Wall street that Mr. Harriman's sojourn abroad has not set him up sufficiently immediately to resume active direction of the great interests with which his name is associated.

Tomorrow—the day he lands—both the Southern and Union Pacific directors are to meet, but it has been suggested from any authoritative source that Mr. Harriman will make any attempt to attend these meetings which are expected to declare dividends and deal with other matters of importance.

On the contrary, after a brief reception at the Erie railroad station after leaving the steamship, he goes direct to his new country place at Arden for further rest.

Alexander Millar, secretary of the Harriman lines, one of Mr. Harriman's most trusted lieutenants, spoke of his chief today with a seriousness and warmth that brought the tears to his eyes. "Mr. Harriman," said he, "has been pictured as an octopus and conspirator. You don't know what a big hearted, big souled man he really is. I call him today the biggest, the brainiest, the most patriotic American we have. Educated in Wall street, he yet has none of that provincialism sometimes attributed to the born-and-bred New Yorker. He was always in sympathy with the West and intuitively divined its needs. Other men have helped but Harriman glazes the trails. If I should be asked to name the chief characteristics that have contributed to his success I should say: His wizardry with figures, his faculty for going instantly to the kernel facts, his judgment of men and his insight into and faith in the future."

DURHAM WOMAN SHOT MAN.

Mrs. Parden Fired in Self-Defense—
Seriously Injured and May Die.
(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Durham, N. C., Aug. 23.—Mrs. Belle Parton last night shot and dangerously wounded her brother-in-law, Henry Underwood, because the latter attacked her.

Underwood, it is alleged, came home in an ugly mood and began a furious attack upon some of the occupants of the house. He used a chair as a weapon in an assault upon his brother, struck a neighbor a dangerous blow with a rock, and finally turned upon Mrs. Parton, who recovered herself sufficiently to grab a revolver and fire a shot into Underwood's abdomen.

Mrs. Parton was released on $100 bond. Underwood may die.

DIRIGIBLE BALLOON WRECKED

Soared 4,500 Feet and After Successful Trial Came Down and Met With Mishap—All Aeronauts Escaped.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Paris, Aug. 23.—Built for the Russian government by the Bayard-Clement Company, the Bayard-Clement dirigible balloon, which by the contract was to have maintained an altitude of 3,600 to 4,500 feet for one hour, was wrecked during its preliminary trial today.

After having made its ascent successfully and remained in the air and come down without damage, the airship while on the ground was torn by a gust of wind from the grasp of the forty men who were holding it.

It was thrown against some trees and telegraph poles nearby, ripping the gas bag to pieces. The ship then fell into the river Seine.

The four occupants had stuck to the car during these happenings. Upon landing in the river they left the shattered ship and swam for the shore. They were picked up by small boats.

Colonel Nach, of the Russian army, one of the occupants, described his experience as follows:

"We made a wonderful ascension, attaining to a height of 4,500 feet. This beats the world's highest record for dirigible balloons. We remained aloft for over an hour never coming below 3,600 feet. Just after the car had come down it was struck by a gust of wind and wrenched from the hands of the men holding the guide ropes. Our fuel was exhausted and we had practically no control. The balloon came down a second time and was ripped open by contact with trees. It then fell in the Seine and we swam until we were picked up."

It is believed that the Bayard-Clement can be repaired: The damaged airship was packed on an automobile wagon and, conveyed to its shed at Sartroville. The aeronaut Capazza, who had charge of the airship, stated that after the collision with the tree and the release of the balloon, its rapid descent was inevitable and it was steered in the direction of the river, where a fall would cause less damage than on land.

SWANSBORO HOUSE PARTY.

Had Enjoyable Outing of a Week—
Swansboro Has Many Visitors.
(Special Star Correspondence.)

Swansboro, N. C., Aug. 23.—The men who sail the seas have had adventures and stirring ones too, since steam revolutionized ocean traffic, but the stories of these modern adventures do not have for us the charm of the actual experience of the day party on board Mr. Nelson's beautiful house boat. For the past week the beach at Swansboro has been a scene of gaiety. It was the most enjoyable week in the history of 1909. Swansboro can boast of having the best bathing facilities on the North Carolina coast. The first rays of the morning sun with its shimmering golden glory would fall upon a merry crowd of bathers, who took the tide at its flood, and during the evening there was special music and other entertaining features. Sleep on board the house boat was like a dream, the cool breezes swept up from the water bringing with it the delicate aroma of the sea. One couple got marooned upon the beautiful island owned by Dr. Shaw and there among the stately palms and fragrant odor of the wild cucumber decided it was good to be there. We didn't visit all the places planned, we felt like saving something for next year's exploration, it would be a real tragedy to forestall all future surprise by forgetting out every joy the first season. The following were members of the party: Misses Fannie Goff, Rose Lee Shaw, Mattie Bell Sabiston, Viola Shaw, Joe Hewitt, Mollie Sabiston, Mrs. N. G. Shaw, Mrs. M. H. Tucker, Miss Edna Shaw, of Maysville, Messrs. J. L. Fennell and E. A. Moore, of Wilmington; Jack Shaw, Fred Mattox, Collin Shaw, George Shaw, and Dr. N. G. Shaw, of Maysville.

PENSACOLA FEARS STORM.

Hurricane Warnings Flying for Second Time in History of City.
(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Pensacola, Fla., Aug. 23.—For the second time in the history of the city hurricane warnings are displayed to-night by the weather bureau and have caused much uneasiness among the bay shore residents, who fear a repetition of the hurricane of three years ago. Vessels at anchor and at wharves have been put on extra anchors and cables while the entire fishing fleet with many of the harbor tugs and steamers and two or three coastwise steamers which put in out of the rough weather have gone across the bay and anchored in a cove.

A wind blowing from 35 to 60 miles an hour has prevailed all day and to-night lowering clouds and a high wind, with exceptionally high tides, give warning of the approach of the hurricane.

The Tarrant bill aimed at social clubs which passed the Alabama Senate yesterday, is held up by the House which refused to concur in two Senate amendments. These amendments permit the playing of pool, dominoes and other games in clubs where wages are not made, and exempts social clubs from taxation up to $2,000 of property value.

STRIKERS LOSE HOPE

Schoneville Steel Workers Realize Their Jobs Are Gone.

QUIET COMES AFTER RIOTING

Troops and Police Flock to the Scene to Preserve Order—Strikers and Sympathizers Searched—
End Not in Sight.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Pittsburg, Aug. 23.—Three columns of smoke floated lazily from the chimneys of the Pressed Steel Car Company's plant in Schoenerville tonight. These mute signals told better than official pronouncements that the striking employees of the car plant had yet to wait long to win their fight against the car company officials for the plant was still in operation despite the wild efforts of infuriated mobs to scare off the imported workmen during the past 24 hours.

Tonight the striking men realized for the first time that their jobs were no more, that the company could do without them and that they no longer were wanted within the big gates of the car plant. The women and children of the strikers grasped the situation as soon as the men and the idea of starvation and eviction with winter coming on caused walls of anguish in many a striker's cottage.

Forty State police are on their way here tonight to augment the company of mounted constables now on duty at the car plant. Since last night's carnage the fearless cavalrymen have evinced a desire to strike fear into the hearts of the men who took their comrades' lives. The strikers realize that the mounted troopers are more than a match for them. Yet all during the day these troopers have been subjected to abuse from house windows and doors whenever they chanced to pass a strike sympathizer's home. In retaliation not a striker or sympathizer left his doorstep today but he was uphanded and searched. Besides the searching the troopers insisted on examining the bodies of the strikers and if they bore bruises or traces of being clubbed they were promptly arrested. As the troopers considered such evidence proof that the men had participated in last night's rioting.

The strikers' wives were viewed with disfavor by the troopers today. Several of them, carrying large baskets, were made to turn over the contents to see that they were carrying nothing contraband into the houses. Twenty-five men were arrested and put into the box car falls by nightfall. The men who resisted were manacled to the troopers' horses and dragged through the streets to the plant entrance.

At noon the great bells of the Catholic cathedral in McKee's Rock began tolling. This was kept up for over two hours. Then the bells were ordered silenced by State troopers as it was pointed out that such demonstration at the present time only went towards agitating the strikers.

Later today the strikers' wives besieged Lieut. Smith, of the State constabulary, for news of their missing husbands. The lieutenant had ten hats gathered from "bloody corners" after the conflict last night. Several of the women claimed that the hats belonged to their husbands or sons and wept tonight over the head-gear.

The strikers' wives seemed gloomy tonight at the extent of last night's fatalities. The gloom over the little car company village is also attributed to the fact that tomorrow a funeral has been planned for the strikers who were victims of last night's rioting. So far as plans for the funeral have been laid, the strikers' bodies will be laid in state at the Catholic cathedral in McKee's Rock during tomorrow morning and headed by the strikers and their sympathizers will be interred tomorrow afternoon in the little cemetery just outside of Schoenerville.

The news that additional constables were on their way from Wilkesbarre and would be in the strike zone before morning seemed to act as a quietus upon those few strike sympathizers who gathered in doorways during the evening and discussed the situation.

A meeting of the striking employees of the car plant scheduled for the late afternoon was not allowed to take place.

Troops Will Be Re-called.
The McKee's Rocks city council late tonight at a special meeting called for the purpose, appointed a committee to go at once to Harrisburg and ask Governor Stuart to call the State constabulary from the plant of the Pressed Steel Car Company, whose 500 employees are on strike. Neither the car company nor the strikers were criticized at the council meeting, the purpose being simply to protect the citizens of McKee's Rocks and Schoenerville.

Another Victim of Riot.
The death list resulting from last night's wild rioting was swelled to-night when Mike Desoski, one of the striking men living in McKee's Rocks, died at Mercy hospital from gun wounds in the lungs and abdomen. This brings the death list up to seven. All of the seriously wounded are showing slight improvement.

CURTISS AERO WINS

American Aviator Lowered
Speed Record on French
Course.

A THRILLING FLIGHT MADE

A Frenchman Divided Honors With American in the Two Best Flights
of the Day—Curtiss in Final Contest.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.)

Rhims, France, Aug. 23.—Glenn H. Curtiss, the American aviator, and M. Paulhan, representing France, divided the honors of the second day of aviation week, the former, a thrilling flight just before dusk in which he lowered the speed record for the course, which measures 6 1/5 miles, to 8 minutes 35 2/5 seconds; the latter making two impressive high altitude flights of 49 1/2 and 56 kilometers, respectively, in the endurance test for the Prix de La Champagne.

Curtiss' performance began just as the time limit of the start for the Prix de La Champagne was expiring when the American enthusiasts had abandoned hope of seeing their representative take the field.

Amid the unbounded jubilation of the French spectators, Bleriot only a few minutes before had clipped 16 seconds off Lefebvre's record made yesterday with his powerful 80-horse power monoplane. Suddenly at one end of the field a cry went up, "The American is starting!"

With a preliminary run along the ground of 100 yards the machine of Curtiss rose lightly and shot by the tribunes at a height of 60 feet. It was going at a terrific pace with the wing level was plane. Curtiss made the last turn under the mistaken impression that the finish line was close. He descended so close to the earth that many thought he touched, but perceiving his error, he mounted quickly and easily, crossing the line majestically. An instant later the signal, was hoisted that he had made a record.

Curtiss said he had not pushed his machine to the limit of its speed and laughingly declined to say more, adding that the most interesting incident of his flight was the view he got of his fallen rivals strewn around the course.

It is the intention of the American aviator now to await patiently the international event for the Gordon Bennett cup Saturday, for which he is the favorite, after which he will try for the Prix de La Leyrie, the final of which will be contested on Sunday.

Paulhan alone made a record in the endurance today, but Lefebvre, Sommer, Sanchis-Pena, Bleriot, DeLagrange, Lambert, Cockburn, Bunn-Varia, Gobron, Latham, Tissandier and Farman qualified with flights varying from 200 metres to 250 kilometres. During Paulhan's long flight chance races took place between him and Bleriot and Lefebvre, the two latter outspeeding the flying Paulhan. Bleriot appeared while Paulhan was completing his fourth round and with his 80-horse monoplane swiftly overhauled and passed under the biplane, leaving it far behind.

Two monoplanes having been put out of commission by a slight accident in landing Latham succeeded in making his best flight with an untitled machine with an aluminum propeller. Until Saturday when the international event will be decided the flying is likely to be less interesting than during the first two days, but popular as well as scientific and expert enthusiasm over aviation week shows no sign of abatement.

Among the hundreds of Americans here are Mr. and Mrs. George Gould, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Nat Goodwin, William H. Crane, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kittredge, of Cleveland.

SOUTH CAROLINIAN FIGHTS LYNX

Crawled Into Fierce Animal's Den and Killed It.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Lowell, Ohio, Aug. 23.—William Smith, a South Carolinian hunter, showed his bravery when armed with a big knife he crawled yesterday into a den of lynx near here and killed the leader of the band. The battle lasted three hours. The lynx was six feet in length.

For several months the lynx have been a terror to the community. They have killed stock and attacked people. Their den was in a wild, rocky ravine and no one dared attempt to rout them. Smith organized a posse to help him fight the animals, but he had barely gotten inside the den when the posse, frightened at the growls of the animals, fled in terror. The battle was fought in darkness and the den was so small that Smith was unable to stand erect.

Fever strikes and greater efforts to bring about amicable adjustment of labor disputes with employers was the policy urged at the sessions of the executive board of the Postal Telegraph and Western Union Union yesterday. T. M. Daly, the new president, is presiding.

CONDITION OF CROPS GOOD

Improvement Has Been Steady—Five
New Charters Granted—Failure
in Raleigh—Automobile Accident—Hearings.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 23.—Commissioner of Agriculture Graham, just back from attending farmers' institutes in various parts of the State, says the cotton crop conditions are improving steadily. In fact, the improvement thus far during August has been wonderful under the warm weather conditions with good rains at intervals of something like ten days.

The picking and marketing, he thinks, will hardly be well under way before September 20th, although North Carolina's first bale was marketed during last week. This condition heightens the danger of the crop being cut off below the average in the event of early frost. There are practically no troubles, he says, anywhere in the State from plant disease. Commissioner Graham thinks there is little probability of any serious shortage in labor for the picking season. The commissioner says upland corn is good in all parts of the State, but the lowland crop is a failure. He says there will be a decided increase in the hay crop in the State, due largely to a volunteer crop that will be gathered off the bottom land corn that has failed owing to early floods in the grain yield.

Five charters were granted today: The A. A. Shuford Milling Co., Hickory, capital $125,000 authorized, and $30,000 subscribed for cotton mills, by A. A. Shuford and others of Hickory. The Cochrane Mantel and Novelty Co., Charlotte, capital $25,000, by J. E. Cochrane and others for mantels and novelty woodwork. The Cole Insurance and Realty Co., Randleman, capital $25,000, by A. G. Newton and others. The Overman Williams Co., Salisbury, capital $125,000, for dealing in and transporting wheat, corn, rye, and other grains, hops and other produce including operation of steamers to and from Jacksonville and dealing in farm machinery, E. R. Overman and T. G. Williams principal incorporators. The Ajamo Amusement Co., Charlotte, for running vaudeville and moving picture shows, capital $10,000 by F. M. Simmons and others. The Henderson Light and Power Co., R. M. Oates president, increases capital to $125,000.

C. B. Ray, conducting an extensive harness and vehicle business at 109 East Martin street, made an assignment today, naming W. B. Jones, attorney here, as trustee. His wife, Mrs. Mattie P. Ray, joins in the assignment which conveys the stock of harness and vehicles, the open accounts of the establishment, and the family residence, corner of Newbern Avenue and Person street, the latter being valued at about $5,000. Mr. Ray has been maintaining an extensive trade in vehicles and harness with farmers throughout this section and has a great number of open and secured accounts. A number of preferred creditors, all secured by mortgages recently filed, are mentioned in the deed of assignment including $3,000 to the Raleigh Banking and Trust Co., $2,000 to W. H. Ray, $2,000 to H. C. Ray, and $1,500 to W. S. Ray, the three being brothers of the assignor. It is estimated that Mr. Ray's unsecured indebtedness is $12,000. He claims that assets will, if judiciously wound up, pay out in full. He reserves homestead and personal property exemptions.

The Corporation Commission heard today argument on the part of the Southern Railway in the matter of the order of the commission that the Southern, Seaboard Air Line and Atlantic Coast Line join in providing union depot facilities for Sanford. The railroad resisted jointly the petition of the citizens for a union station; the commission ordered that union facilities be provided. The Southern excepted to this. Then the Seaboard Air Line filed plans for improving the present S. A. L. station for union service and the Southern excepted to this. The whole matter was thrashed over today, the Southern contending that there is no necessity for requiring the railroad companies to expend a large sum of money under present conditions for such an improvement.

Miss Musa Ellison, victim of the terrible automobile accident Saturday afternoon, is still lingering between life and death with only slight chance for life and no possibility for complete recovery. The three ribs broken were crushed down against the heart and into the lungs, one being put out of commission completely. She is being attended by four of the ablest physicians and surgeons here and everything possible is being done for her. Miss Ellison is a much admired young woman who had attained distinction in local circles as an accomplished musician.

On Tuesday of this week the Corporation Commission will hear citizens of Weldon on a petition filed urging that the railroad companies entering that town be required to provide a union passenger depot. It is expected that the Seaboard Air Line and the Atlantic Coast Line will also have representatives here to present their side of the situation.

The body of Gordon B. Smith, of Atlanta, Ga., the nephew of ex-Governor Hoke Smith, was recovered from the Chagres river in Panama yesterday. Young Smith, who was an engineer, was drowned while making a survey.

Goldsboro, N. C., Aug. 23.—Wilmington, with "Rube" Howard on the rubber, put it all over Goldsboro here this afternoon by the score of 4 to 0. The visitors made two runs in the first and two more in the fifth, the direct result of errors by Giants Kelly and Francis, both. Three times the locals had a man on second, but the necessary hit didn't show up, hence not a Giant even reached third. In the first Nichols walked, advanced by Guerrant, went to third on Kelly's muff of Smith's grounder and scored easily on Kelly's wild throw to the plate, while Smith reached third on the throw. Brodie then singled to center and Smith scored. In the fifth Francis dropped Howard's fly, Nichols sacrificed; Guerrant hit for two to right, scoring Howard. Smith was out and Brodie singled to left, scoring Guerrant.

Nichols, the very first man to face Steehr, drew four balls and was sacrificed by Guerrant, scoring on wild throw of Smith's hit to second. Smith safe on second; Brodie was then next up and swatted one to centre that homed Smith with one sacrifice down; Sharp was then out pitcher to first and Brennan third to first. In Goldsboro's first Kelly flew to second and Epler fanned; Sharp made an infield hit to second and stole second, but Davy Crockett was out Howard to first.

In the second Kite was out third to first and after Jayes fanned the same Reuben Howard clouted one to right for two sacks, but a fly to first was the best Nichols could do toward sending the Rube to the rubber. For Goldsboro Gettig made an infield hit to second but was forced by Gettig.

TAFT LEGISLATION WILL EN- COUNTER DIFFICULTIES.

Judging from the news from Washington, President Taft will have some serious work ahead of him when he returns from his summer vacation. Some of President Taft's proposed legislation which Congress will be urged to pass at its next session, is arousing considerable opposition. It seems that "my policies" of President Roosevelt are some of the policies which President Taft has proposed to carry out, but already the opposition from strong sources is such that serious consideration will have to be given to the changes suggested by President Roosevelt and now endorsed by President Taft.

The changes which it is proposed to make involve the anti-trust and inter-State commerce laws. The proposed changes in these laws greatly concern the people and it is well that a word be given about it at this time. The Washington correspondent of the New York Journal of Commerce, sends this from Washington under date of August 21st:

"Plans for the revision of the anti-trust and inter-State commerce laws, which have been under discussion in the Cabinet for some time past and have become known in general terms, are proving of unusual interest in administrative circles here. Some of the men who are chiefly affected by the proposed changes have recently been in the city for the purpose of informing themselves more in detail on certain points, and have cautiously expressed their opinions about various aspects of the situation. The present prospect is that there will be considerable more difference of opinion among the 'insiders' than had been looked for."

"There is undoubtedly a strong feeling throughout all branches of the Administration in favor of changes in the existing legislation on trusts and railroad combinations. This feeling has existed ever since the middle of President Roosevelt's last term of office, when he put forward, largely in recognition of this very feeling, suggestions covering three points—the modification of the inter-State Commerce law in such a way as to legalize railroad combinations under the oversight of the inter-State Commerce Commission, the modification of the Sherman law so as to permit the creation of combinations that were not intended to unduly or unwarrantably restrain trade, and the registration or licensing of corporations engaging in inter-State trade. These suggestions were approved by the officers of the Government who had to do with the application of the laws in question, including the inter-State Commerce Commission, the Bureau of Corporations and the Department of Justice. None of the suggestions received favorable consideration in Congress. The plan to permit railroad combinations under the oversight of the inter-State Commerce Commission and to remove them from under the Sherman Anti-trust law was antagonized because of the great powers that would thereby be bestowed upon the Commission. Some of the strong railroads well represented in Washington presented argument against the scheme to Congressional leaders as soon as the President mentioned it in a message.

"Then the plan to make the Sherman act apply only to industrial corporations formed for the purpose of monopoly or for raising prices and to exempt all combinations that were 'reasonable' in their nature was opposed by the manufacturers of the country because it specifically contained provisions designed to let off the labor organizations from falling under the control of the law and because the small manufacturers did not like to think of losing such protection as they had under the Sherman act, against the industrial trusts.

"The registration and licensing of the corporations was opposed by these same persons, and in addition some of the trusts did not take very kindly to the notion. In administrative circles, however, there was almost entire harmony on the scheme, notwithstanding practical legislators asserted that it was out of the question to get any such propositions through Congress. The Taft plans, as now tentatively made known, follow the Roosevelt ideas along these lines, so far as can be judged, but they add a large administrative programme which Mr. Roosevelt did not have in view."

As a matter of course, the proposed changes in these laws are of great importance to the people, the railroads, the corporations, and all concerned on all sides, and it is said that such strong arguments have been brought against the Roosevelt propositions that it is announced that President Taft himself will not adhere to parts of the plans that are shown to be unwise by the test of actual experience.

There may be instances where it will be as advantageous to the people as it is to the railroads to combine, and likewise for certain industries to combine, but just how to permit these things and at the same time prevent monopolies and to avoid injury to the public interests, is the problem. Even as the law stands now, or else overriding it, President Roosevelt, it will be remembered, consented to the absorption of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company by the Steel Trust, and so far as permitting certain railroads to combine, people of Wilmington have an object lesson in the advantages that would be gained by a combination of railroads that would reach the coal fields and the grain country. It is the great railroad combinations and trunk lines of railroads that reach to and build up the ports, and necessarily make commerce, but how far to change the laws is a problem that the Taft administration is up against.

The President will need the assistance of wise and experienced Senators and Representatives who are probably familiar with the laws and their operations and defects, and there is where it is sometimes a bad policy to change Congressmen at a time when the older members can be of the most service, considering, of course, that they represent the people instead of the interests.

The festive Norfolk Landmark inquires: "How comes it that the Superintendent of the North Carolina State prison is named Laughinghouse? Is this a deliberate attempt to make sport of the inmates?" Of course, the Norfolk paper intended to make a laughing matter out of this but Superintendent Laughinghouse is too serious a man to make laughing stock out of the inmates. The fact is we don't know whether or not Mr. Laughinghouse ever indulges in a smile.

The mad speed race of automobiles at Indianapolis resulted in seven deaths and numerous cripples. Because three spectators were killed on Saturday, the race was called off. If you catch us at a mad speed race we'll have a reserved seat in a tree far above the madding crowd.

When the young women of Asheville besieged the mayor of that city and he couldn't face them with his record on the sale of soda-water and other soft drinks on Sunday, he fled to the mountains. There is where the mayor has the advantage of men who have no mountains to fall back on.

It is urged that "in view of the pellagra scare, it would be a good idea to carefully inspect all the corn you buy."

It is not necessary to state that North Carolinians are convinced that this has no reference whatever to Good Old North Carolina Corn.

A Georgia girl shot a fellow because he wouldn't love her. North Carolina girls don't have to draw their guns for anything like that. Every man immediately surrenders without resistance.

"Walter Wellman has made his second attempt to search for the North Pole in a dirigible balloon." We didn't know before this that a dirigible balloon had any North Pole in it.

In Cincinnati Mr. Sam Alsbrook was fined $25 for beating his wife, Mrs. Canoe Alsbrook. This shows that the law even prohibits a man from paddling his own canoe.

When it comes to higher prices for beef, the consumers will never line up on the side of the bulls.

—Mr. Leonard W. Tufts, of Pinehurst, is giving the State some good advertising in his various good roads speeches. He has also given the state some good lessons in road building by his work in his estate at Pinehurst. He is a valuable citizen and we need more like him.—Raleigh Evening Times.

—A sarcastic young North Carolinian recently requested the presiding judge to increase his penitentiary sentence from three to five years. The judge did it, moreover, for he was a wise judge in his generation, and knows enough to answer a fool according to the fool's own folly.—Washington Herald.

—The Wilmington Star makes a new point in favor of good roads. It advocates them from the standpoint of morality as well as economy. It says: "If you desire to eliminate a fruitful source of utter depravity, come out on the side of good roads. A man can go to perdition faster on a mean road than he can get to market on a good one." In other words, bad roads not infrequently lead to the bad place. We are always finding some new ground upon which we are opposed to them.—Charlotte Observer.

TOLERANCE OF OPINION.

Wilmington, N. C., Aug. 23, 1909.

Editor Morning Star:

I have read with pleasure, and with profit, the editorial in last Wednesday's paper, appearing under the caption, "Bigots We Have Met," and which deals, in a broad-minded and tolerant spirit, with a class of persons and conditions prevalent in the discussion and settlement of the so-called "moral" issue, voted upon in the recent South Carolina prohibition-dispersary election.

It seems that the South Carolina politicians, both clerical and lay, were as vituperous and intolerant in dealing with those who differed with them in point of opinion, as were some of our own citizens in discussing the merits of our prohibition vs. local problem, which came up for settlement in May of last year.

A man with strong and honest convictions, and the stamina and manhood to assert them, is entitled to the highest consideration and respect, and should be allowed to express his views without being made the object of abuse and vituperation at the hands of bigots, who are so serenely self-conscious of the correctness of their own views, and of the immaculate honesty of purpose actuating the position taken by them upon matters of public moment.

It is a great pity that the necessity for these political uprisings, such as have been gone through with in South Carolina, cannot be obviated, as they accomplish little or no good and, at the same time, are the means of bringing about estrangement between neighbors, friends, and, is too often the case, disagreements and differences even between near relatives.

In addition to the class of voters dealt with in your editorial of the 18th inst., there are two other classes of citizens frequently met with in local and State elections, and whose privilege of suffrage is a menace to good government and the community in which they reside. First, I refer to the worthless weakling, who has no convictions of his own, and who can always be found with the largest "crowd," and with what he considers the drift of public sentiment. The second class of man—the real hypocrite—is the fellow who really has personal convictions of his own, but, either from want of manhood and moral stamina, or from imaginary business, political, or social advantages, which he expects to reap thereby, casts his influence and vote contrary to the dictates of his own conscience. This class of hypocrites are a source of political evil, and are a menace to the commonwealth at large, having unquestionably been the means of making possible, some of the very undesirable legislation enacted in several of the Southern and Western States during recent years.

In conclusion, may I add, that the editorial in Wednesday's "Star" should make an excellent impression upon every citizen who has had the good fortune to have read it, as, I am sure, it will have a tendency to broaden our views and opinions of others, and will make us more tolerant of the convictions of our neighbor, however difficult it may be for us to understand the logic of his position upon difficult problems of public moment.

Yours truly, W. F. JONES.

CITY LIVERY CO.

CASWELL'S WINNING TEAM.

Took Two Games from Whiteville Saturday—Playing Good Ball. Fort Caswell, N. C., Aug. 21.—A baseball aggregation representing the thriving city of Whiteville, N. C., journeyed down to the local diamond yesterday to do battle with the boys of Uncle Sam and met defeat two times out of the three battles. In the first game, which was pulled off yesterday afternoon, Stokel went to the rifle pit for the home hopes and lasted until the third, when he was bombarded below the short ribs by a pitched ball, and had to retire, but not until three runs were scored on his deception. He was relieved by Anderson, who held the visitors down to one hit for the remainder of the game, but his wildness and errors behind him allowed two more runs.

Caswell could garner but two runs off McColl, and lost by the score of 5 to 2. The feature of the game was the pitching of McColl, and the rooting; Thomas' Rooting Club for the visitors. Struck out by Stokel 1, by Anderson 2, by McColl 6; hits off Stokel 2 in three innings, off Anderson 2 in six innings, off McColl 4 in eight innings. Umpire Ridge.

In the second game, which was played this morning, Smith for Caswell and Tucker for the visitors were both effective, and it was a pretty pitchers' battle until the seventh round, when with the bases full on two singles and a complimentary, Shanfelt caromed one for three stations, scoring three men, and Rife's single tallied Shanfelt. Caswell scored in the eighth on one hit and a brace of errors.

The visitors tallied once in the first, and after that they never looked dangerous. The features of the game was the pitching of Smith, and Shanfelt's timely three bagger. Score: Caswell 6, Whiteville 1. Hits off Smith 5, off Tucker 8; batters, Smith and Canterbury; Tucker and Council.

The third game was called at the end of the seventh inning by agreement, and went to Caswell, score 7 to 1. Kozelka did the deceiving for Caswell and was never in danger, allowing but three hits; struck out three men and allowed one stroll, while Davis for the visitors was touched up for five runs in the first two spasms, and Council, who relieved him, could not stop the run hungry of the Caswell boys, who made three more runs off of his delivery. Kozelka's support wavered for a brief space in the last inning and those alert visitors shoved one tally across the marble.

The feature was Kozelka's batting and Rife's base running. Batteries, Kozelka and Shanfelt; Davis, Council, Council, Davis. Hits off Kozelka 3, off Davis 4, off Council 3. Whiteville plays Southport this afternoon.

The goods offered at this sale are not old, shop-worn, back-number, out-of-date junk, but bright, new, fresh stock, put in since our sale in January. We have more goods than we can advertise or display at one time, therefore watch the papers for further announcements.

HOW IT IS DONE: Some will wonder how we can sell good goods for so little money. Others will say flatly: "It can't be done." All who come to the store will have it proven to their satisfaction that we CAN and WILL. It is done in this way: Our buyer attended the large Furniture Exposition in New York. At the close, the samples were sold at greatly reduced prices. He was there with the money and bought the goods, and is now offering many of them below factory price. In addition to the line of samples, we have a number of other bargains, secured by buying the entire lots of certain patterns and paying cash—good buying by an experienced, competent buyer with the ready cash. The person who fails to get some of these values we offer in this sale will be the loser.

ticipating a pleasant and profitable

WORK ON CITY HALL.

Contractor Begins Remodeling of Interior of Building.

Contractor Robt. H. Brady began yesterday the work of remodeling the interior of the City Hall building. As has been noted in The Star, the plans call for a complete re-arrangement of the offices, with the exception of the city clerk and treasurer. The police department will be moved to the Mayor's office and the Mayor will take the office now occupied by the Board of Audit and Finance, the last named moving across the hall to the present
police department room. Two offices will be fitted up here, one for the Board of Audit and Finance and the other for the Water and Sewerage Commission. The police will probably move today to their new quarters.
The fixtures were taken out yesterday and the old court room were a deserted appearance. The basement will be excavated 18 inches, work on which was commenced yesterday, and a cement floor laid. In the basement will be the Naval Reserves, the health department and the cells for the white and colored prisoners. The changes will not only give more room but it is thought will be more convenient for all the officials of the city.

At the Bijou Today.

"The Man Without a Country" is the title of the feature picture of the bill at the Bijou today. The film is made from Edward Everett Hale's novel of that title and the theme has been well preserved. The management says of the picture, "No one can see it without being a better citizen,
a better man or woman, so deeply does the pictured drama inculcate a nob-ler, higher patriotism. No expense has been spared to make the production notable and worthy of its subject." The Bijou will doubtless be crowded at each performance today.

TALK ABOUT TAFT'S VISIT

Will be Made Notable Event in History of Wilmington—City
Will Probably be in Gala
Attire—People Coming.

The proposed visit to this city in November of President William Howard Taft is generally discussed in the business houses and on the streets by prominent citizens just now and the consensus of opinion seems to be that the occasion should be one of the most notable in the history of Wilmington. To this end the citizens are indulging in no little amount of discussion as to arrangements for the entertainment of the Chief Executive and his party and for the accommodation of the thousands of visitors who will be here.

The outlined plans for the entertainment of the party were given in The Star last week and while subject to some minor changes, it is not thought that they will be changed in the main. The details will be worked out by various committees which will probably be named within a few days.
It has been suggested, and this course may be adopted, that the Board of Aldermen and Board of Audit and Finance hold a meeting for the purpose of making an appropriation for the entertainment of the party. It is pointed out by a member of the aldermanic body that the city should rent a number of vacant store rooms (if they can be found), and convert them into a resting place for ladies and children, who will doubtless be out in great numbers. In the opinion of this alderman a meeting of the board will be held shortly for the purpose of considering these matters, or they will be brought up at the special meeting for all purposes which will be held one day this week.

While nothing has been decided upon it is very likely that the city will be in gala attire for the President's visit. It has been suggested that every business house in the city should decorate in honor of the Nation's Chief Executive. It has also been suggested that the entire week of November 8th should be given over to festivities.

It is proposed by some that an office should be opened by the committee in charge of the arrangements just as soon as possible for the purpose of advertising the event and giving any information that is desired. It is believed that the number of visitors to the city on that date could be made to reach the 25,000 mark or even beyond that if the proper effort is made.
Several one-day excursions could be run to the city which would bring thousands that probably could not secure accommodations on the regular trains.

Arranging Itinerary.

The following dispatch sent out from Beverly, Mass., gives one a clear idea as to the big task of arranging the schedule for the President's trip and will be of peculiar interest to Wil-mingtonians as the man in charge of this work is a brother of Mrs. James Owen Reilly, of this city:

"While every State in the West and South is asking the President to stop in its smiling midst, Edward Walter Smithers, chief of the telegraph and cipher bureau of the White House, charged with the duty of arranging
all the details of the forthcoming Presidential tour, is having his troubles.

"He lives in a forest of railroad
maps and moves about in a broad expanse of time tables. He has to map down to a minute where the President will be on any given day, how long he can stay in Podunk Gap and how fast he must travel to reach Biltherville on time. Whenever a change is made in the itinerary the world is thrown out of joint, for Mr.
Smithers. He has to fix up all the holes made in his plans by the change.

"If anybody thinks it is an easy job
to arrange for a President to travel about 13,000 miles, carrying two special cars, a lot of baggage, cabinet officers a part of the time and United States Senators the rest of the time,
a little conversation with Smithers will show him he has the task sized up wrong.

"Smithers has committed to memory all the movements of the fast trains on the Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and Santa Fe, the Oregon Short Line, the New York Central and the Southern Railway, not to mention the other roads, large and small, in the country. He can close his eyes and see stretched before his vision all the stations on all of these roads. He could stand up in any railroad station of the South or West and call off the outgoing trains with the precision of an old hand at the business.

"Last week, says a Beverly dispatch, he leaned back with a sigh of relief and allowed himself to believe he had the whole thing settled.
He could tell you what time the President would reach Chicago, what minute he would roll into Seattle, and how many side trips he would make there. When he awoke each morning he was repeating to himself mechanically the stops in San Francisco and six Southern States. The thing looked good. He was a traveling Hercules, holding the transportation world on his capacious shoulders. Then Postmaster General Hitchcock appeared on the scene and woke him up.

"Mr. Hitchcock persuaded the President that he was not taking the right route through Arizona and New Mexico. After that Smithers had to get busy and rearrange about 6,000 more miles of schedules and trains. He telegraphed his arm off, sent frantic orders for more time tables, and went to work all over again.

"After that he will begin to memorize the names of the boats and the steamers the President will use before the tour ends. If a few air ships and submarines are thrown in, Smithers will not mind. His memory is getting good from long usage.

"But it must be said that he lives in continual dread. The itinerary has been changed so often that he believes he will wake up any morning to find that additional changes have been ordered. It is easy enough to order them, but Smithers is the man who

Beautiful as the mountain side when the Autumn

son.

Rich messalines, taffetas and rough effects and every weave which Fashion has declared worth while is here at a tempting price. Silks which are correct in every detail.

There is a lot of humbuggery about silks. Many a beautiful sheen conceals a coating of lead, to give weight, which causes the fabric to cut with very little wear.

When you buy our silks you buy absolutely the best quality to be had. That is why among women of this vicinity our silks have such a recognized standard.

Choose the silks for the new dress from among these enticing values.

Extra interest will center in these $1.25 Messa-

Trimnings to match are also here.
These consist of braids and Persian net bands.

LUMINA—THURSDAY NIGHT

WILMINGTON BOY WOUNDED

In Resenting Insult on Street Car in Louisville, Ky., Edmond Prince, Jr., Seriously Stabbed—Part-
ents at Bedside.

Mr. Edmond Prince, Jr., the 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace C.
Prince, of this city, was severely stabbed by a negro on a street car in Louisville, Ky., where he was visiting, Sunday morning, and his condition is regarded as serious, although his recovery is hoped for.

It appears from the meagre reports received here that Mr. Prince and a party of friends, including Victor von Borries, who was also seriously slashed, had boarded a street car and taken their seats when a crowd of drunken negroes attempted to crowd in among them. The insult was promptly resented. The negroes were armed with knives and razors while the young white men had nothing with which to defend themselves. They fought man-fully and put up as good a defense as was possible in face of the odds against them. In the melee three of the young men, including Mr. Prince and Mr. Victor von Borries, the latter of Louisville, were severely cut, Mr.
Prince receiving a penetrating stab in the right lung. The attending physician advises relatives here that young Prince has done splendidly from the first and the latest advices are to the effect that he could not be doing better and that his recovery is expected.

Mr. Prince has been in robust health, and being of temperate habits and of a splendid constitution his recovery is expected to be rapid.

The father of the young man was notified Sunday of the unfortunate affair and left in the afternoon for Louisville via Washington, where Mrs.
Prince, who was visiting in Pennsylvania, joined him yesterday morning and they will reach the bedside of their son this morning. The young man was visiting relatives in Louisville and expected to leave Sunday night for Monterey, Pa., to spend the remainder of his vacation with his mother and sister before returning to Princeton, where he is a member of the class of '11.

The news of the unfortunate affair was received here with deep regret by the hundreds of friends of young Prince, who is held in the highest esteem by all who know him.

has to make the arrangements that fill the orders.

"Thus it is that, among the cool
breezes of Beverly and the atmosphere of rest and recreation, the man named Smithers has as much work as he can well perform. He knows all about the railroads and he reads time tables as if they were the most exciting novels."

A MERRY ATTRACTION.

Academy Promises in Its Preliminary Opening Attraction Thursday night.

In its preliminary opening attraction
"The Smart Set," which is said to be one of the best known of colored companies and which this season is appearing in a new and bright musical comedy, the Academy promises something awfully jolly. While the theatre will not be in full readiness for the season yet arrangements will be made so that a good performance may be given and the large audience that will,
no doubt, be present will be able to enjoy the event in comfort.

Everyone who cares for fine singing,
both popular and classical, should not miss the performance of "The Smart Set," it is said. It is a well known fact that colored people have great musical gifts and the management has gathered together in "The Smart Set"
the most prominent artists in the race.
The leading role is in the hands of Salem Tutt Whitney, America's most versatile colored comedian. The sale of seats will commence at Plummer's tomorrow morning and the prices will run to $1.

Flag Dance to Be Repeated.

It is announced that the Flag Dance will be repeated at Lumina Thursday night. The flag dance was given earlier in the season and was pronounced by many to be the finest of all the dances. The Tidewater Power Company has been requested many times to repeat it. One of the features of this dance is the playing of the National airs, and as these are being played the flags of the different Nations are unfolded. This feature made a decided hit with the spectators. The crowning event of the evening comes when the Confederate flag is unfurled
to the strains of "Dixie."

Trivial Action Dismissed.

A rather interesting, though trivial,
case was heard before Justice Borne-man yesterday afternoon. The defendant was Ernest Gilliam, colored, indicted by Mr. S. D. Bryant, who charged larceny by trick of two pigeons. It appears that pigeons had been damaging the garden of the negro and he captured two of them. He did not know who owned them, but testified that when Mr. Bryant claimed them
he offered to pay whatever he charged.
The case was dismissed. George L.
Peschau, Esq., represented the defendant and Woodus Kellum, Esq., appeared for the prosecution.

Crowd Went to Fayetteville.

Knight's excursion to Fayetteville, operated in two sections, for both white and colored, was run from this city yesterday, carrying between fifple.

REMAINS LAID TO REST.

Funeral of Captain John F. Divine
Held Yesterday Morning.

The funeral services of Captain John Francis Divine, whose sad death occurred Saturday afternoon, were held from St. Thomas' Catholic Church at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, conducted by Rev. Father Dennen. The edifice was crowded with friends and relatives of the deceased and hundreds were unable to gain admission to the church. There were present a large number of out-of-town friends of the deceased, including Mr. Robert D.
Croly, of Petersburg, assistant vice President and assistant secretary of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, besides a number of relatives. The offices of the Coast Line were closed during the funeral hour and a large number of the officials and clerks attended the services. Members of Cape Fear Camp, United Confederate Veterans, attended the services in a body,
and members of the United Societies of St. George and St. Andrew also attended. Following the services at the church the remains were tenderly borne to Oakdale cemetery, where they were laid to rest. There was a profusion of beautiful floral designs which attested in a measure the high esteem in which Captain Divine was held by his many friends here and elsewhere.

The pallbearers were: Honorary, Dr.
T. S. Burbank, Messrs. W. N. Royall,
George W. Kidder, James F. Post, Sr.,
S. P. Collier and Robert D. Croly;
active, Messrs. James D. Nutt, W. M.
Creasy, Joseph T. King, W. G. Phil-
lam, W. F. Robertson and M. J. Corbett.

The office buildings of the Coast Line at Wilmington, Richmond, Norfolk, Rocky Mount, Florence and Charleston are draped in mourning as a tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased, and the locomotives between Wilmington and Florence and between Wilmington and Rocky Mount which comprised all of the old Atlantic Coast Line system, over which Captain Divine had jurisdiction, are also suitably draped. The buildings and locomotives will remain draped in mourning for a period of 30 days.

Convicted of Vagrancy.

Eight negro women were tried before Justice Harris yesterday morning on the charge of vagrancy, having been arrested early Sunday morning in Brooklyn by Constable W. B. Savage.
Seven were found guilty and one was discharged. Ethel Evans, Mary Fisher, Mandy Johnson, Ella Heywood and Pearl Gullion were fined $10 and costs in default of which they will have to serve 30 days on the country farm,
and Lou Robinson and Stella Gause were fined $5 and costs or 30 days on the farm. It is probable that a few of the defendants will be able to pay
the amount of the fines and costs.

MOTLEY THROG IN COURT

Recorder Held Long and Rather Interesting Session Yesterday—Shoplifters to Farm—"Blind Tiger" Was Fined.

Recorder Furlong held an interesting and lengthy session of his court yesterday morning, and the court room was well filled with defendants, witnesses and spectators.

The cases of most interest, probably, were the ones in which Mary Jones, Maggie Myers and Annie Bryant, colored girls, were charged with shoplifting—stealing goods from Gaylord's and from Kress Saturday night. The stolen goods were identified by members of the firms from whom they were taken. The negroes were arrested in Kress' store Saturday night by Patrolman Leon George, who had secreted himself in the store for the purpose of ascertaining who had been stealing from the store. Annie Bryant and Mary Jones each had a silk dress pattern which came from Gaylord's store, in addition to small articles taken from Kress'. Maggie Myers was discharged, but the other two defendants were sent to the county farm for a period of three months each. Herbert McClammy, Esq., appeared for the defendants.

The next case in point of interest was one against Sue Chafers, colored, charged with selling whiskey to Mary King, colored. There were several other witnesses against the defendant. Brooke G. Empe, Esq., represented the defendant and Marsden Bellamy, Jr., Esq., appeared for the prosecution. The Recorder found her guilty and fined her $25 and costs, which she paid and was released.

Carrie Teachey, colored, was arraigned on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon upon Hannah Charles, colored, and disorderly conduct, the cases being sent up from Justice Harris' court. Woodus Kelum, Esq., appeared for the defendant. The Recorder found the defendant guilty of disorderly conduct and let her off upon the payment of the costs. The assault case was left open for judgment.

G. Hicks, proprietor of the Rock Springs Hotel on Chesnut street, arrested Saturday night and recognized for his appearance before the Recorder yesterday to answer the charge of disorderly conduct, failed to show up and a capias was issued for him. The police have been informed that Hicks left the city early yesterday morning.

A case against Chas. Brinkley, colored, charged with disorderly conduct in that he threw stones into the house of Mary Lord, colored, Saturday night, was called, but continued until Wednesday at the request of Geo. L. Pesch, Esq., counsel for the defendant. Hon. John D. Bellamy appears for the prosecution.

The Recorder suspended his court for a few minutes while Justice George Harris heard the testimony in a case against Ed Frank, colored, charged with assault with a deadly weapon upon Ernest Williams, colored. The warrant was issued by the justice and served yesterday morning by Constable W. B. Savage. Probable cause was found and the case was sent to the Recorder, who reconvened his court. The defendant was fined $10 and taxed with the costs, which he paid.

POTTER-LOWRY NUPTIALS.

Marriage Probably Celebrated in This City Few Weeks Ago.

The following marriage announcement which appeared in Sunday's Columbia State will be read with much interest by many friends of the young couple in this city:

"Mr. and Mrs. John E. Lowry announce the marriage of their daughter, Lucile Elizabeth, to Mr. Maro S. Potter of Atlanta. Mr. and Mrs. Potter are with Mr. and Mrs. Lowry on Senate street and leave tomorrow to visit Mr. Potter's family in Austell, Ga. From there they will go for a trip through the West, visiting the Seattle exposition, and will return to Columbia before going to make their home in New York city, where Mr. Potter is in business."

The marriage of Miss Lowry and Mr. Potter was probably celebrated in Wilmington on or about the 30th of July as the record at the register of deeds' office shows that on that date a marriage license was issued to the couple. Miss Lowry, her mother and sisters spent ten days or two weeks at Wrightsville Beach, being guests at the Tarrymore, and Mr. Potter was a guest at the Seashore.

It was understood that they were married here, but in accordance with the wishes of the happy couple the fact was kept from the public at the time. Miss Lowry returned to her home and Mr. Potter went on to New York on a business trip. Both made a large number of friends at the beach and in Wilmington.

Work on Dickinson Street.

With a force of some 12 or 15 hands the Streets and Wharves Committee of the Board of Aldermen yesterday began the work of repairing Dickinson street, from the hospital to the Wynnewood factory, as provided for in a recent appropriation. The force is now at work putting in cross-drains and doing other work between Red Cross and Dixon streets. An appropriation of $2,000 was made for this work and the committee expects to put the street in first-class condition.

Boys' Brigade Meeting.

A business meeting was held at the Boys' Brigade armory last night with a good attendance of members and plans for the Fall and Winter work discussed, and arrangements made for the annual meeting the second Monday in September. The coming meeting will mark the beginning of the Brigade's drills and other matters of interest will be considered.

SEWERAGE SYSTEM REPORT

Engineers About Ready With Report and Recommendations on Present System—Special Meeting of Aldermen.

Mayor Walter G. MacRae stated yesterday that a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen would be called within the next few days for the purpose of receiving the report and recommendations of the engineers relative to the advisability of purchasing the present sewerage system and for the transaction of any other business that may come before the body.

The Mayor was informed yesterday that the report would be ready within a day or two, probably today, and as the members of the Board of Aldermen are anxious for some definite action regarding the sewerage system matter which has been hanging fire for some time a meeting will be called the minute the report is ready. At a meeting of the board some weeks ago the contract for making a thorough investigation of the present sewerage system was let to the firm of Rapalle Lucas and Humphreys, who have gone over the entire system very thoroughly. There are about 22 miles of sewerage lines in the city at present and some of the officials are of the opinion that at least a portion of it could be used in the construction of the new system. The Aldermen will, of course, be governed by the report and recommendations of the engineers and what that report will contain is known only to the members of the firm of engineers.

Mayor MacRae stated that as soon as the report is received some action would be taken at once toward the construction of a new system, or the purchase of and the rebuilding of the old system.

AT WRIGHTSVILLE BEACH.

Crowds at the Resort Sunday—Some of the Visitors.

From the large number of visitors at Wrightsville Beach Sunday one would not think the season is nearing an end. Both of the popular hostleries had very heavy registrations Saturday and Sunday and many of the visitors will remain at the beach for some days yet, while others are arriving on every train. Though the day was rather cool those on the beach Sunday had a delightful time. Both hotels are expecting many more visitors before the close of the season.

Among those registered at the Seashore Sunday were: G. H. Baker, Redfield; J. P. McLaurin, Dixon; Miss Ida L. Middleton, Goldsboro; H. H. Flowers, Fremont; R. Winstead, Mullins, S. C.; W. W. STEAMER FOR COTTON.

Putney Bridge, Arrived Sunday, Is First of Season—Schooner.

The British steamer Putney Bridge, Capt. Robinson, arrived in port Sunday to load cotton from Alexander Sprunt & Son for foreign markets and is the first of the season. Capt. Robinson, with his steamer, has visited this port each season for several years past and has many friends who always greet him with pleasure. The arrival of the Putney Bridge will mark the beginning of the cotton season, and several others are chartered for the month of September.

The schooner Chas. Noble Simmons, Capt. Green, arrived in port yesterday from New York, with a cargo of cement for the Seaboard Air Line for inter-city shipment. The vessel comes to C. D. Maffitt.

NATURE TELLS YOU

As Many a Wilmington Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are sick, Nature tells you all about it. The urine is nature's calendar. Infrequent or too frequent action; any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

Wilmington people testify to this. Mrs. W. W. Mince, 706 South Fifth street, Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am very thankful to Doan's Kidney Pills for the great benefit I received from their use. For a long time I was a victim of kidney trouble. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and at times contained a heavy sediment. My back ached almost constantly and some days I could hardly get about to do my housework. I heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I procured a box at Robert R. Bellamy's drug store and began using them. They helped me more than anything I had ever taken, strengthening my back and kidneys and invigorating my whole system."

third to first and fly to centre, respectively. Jays singled long to centre, but was thrown out to second in a vain effort to stretch it. Goldsboro was out. Crockett, fly to short, Gettig second to first and Doak fly to left.

Wilmington clinched the game in the fifth, Howard having been safe on error of catcher and having been sacrificed by Nichols, scoring on Guerrant's beautiful drive to right for two bases; Capt. Dick was then up and sacrificed "GI" on to third and the Orioles cracked one to left, scoring Guerrant and sewing up the game. Sharp going out pitcher to first. For Goldsboro Smith, Francis and Stoehr flew to left, centre and third in quick succession.

The sixth was an out third to first for Brennan, fly to short for Kite and out short to first for Jays. After Kelly flew to right, Epler for Goldsboro singled to left but Sharp flew to centre and Crockett to right.

In the seventh Howard flew to third, Nichols was safe on error of short, but was out attempting second, Guerrant flying to first. Gettig started Goldsboro's seventh period with a bingle to left but Doak flew to centre and Giant Smith's hit to third resulted in a double of Gettig at second.

Capt. Dick by way of parenthesis started the eighth with a bingle to left and was sacrificed by Brodie but Sharpe fanned and Brennan flew to short. For Goldsboro Francis was out second to first, Stoehr flew to centre and Kelly fouled to catcher.

In the ninth after Kite flew to right, Midgett Jays swatted another to centre, but was out with designs on second, while Howard fanned. For Goldsboro Epler flew to centre, Sharp gamboled but was forced at second by Crockett's hit to Sharp and Gettig flew to second.

Three Umpires at Wilson.

Wilson, N. C., Aug. 23.—It was a one-sided affair in the ball park here this afternoon, the visitors making seven to the locals' three runs. Three umpires were in the diamond before the game closed. Wilson seems to be over anxious, as the season closes, that the pennant shall fly in Wilson. Score:

WHOOPEES!

Bing! Bing!
I'm so n-e-r-v-o-u-s.

Just keep up the good work.

Who said Fayetteville was out of the running?

What do you know about that Wilson game?

We're in sniffing distance of the top, anyhow.

Gettig pocketed a brace of Goldsboro's five safeties.

Sexton will probably serve today vs. the terrible twirler Otis.

Francis had his wing along for not a single Sailor pilfered second.

The moundmen were stung with their passes, doling out one apiece.

Howard whiffed two to Stoehr's three; 'twas mostly a fielding game.

Get together, boys, and keep up that bingle crop work. That's what counts.

That same Hallman, who treated us so uncharitably, led the Killies to victory at Wilson.

Capt. Dick was back in the game to advantage; and it was no weeping willow he wielded yesterday.

Brave Thorpe heaved a masterly game for his pale-face brothers, but bobbles threw him down.

There was no more chance of the Giants scoring than of polling a Democratic majority in the Keystone State.

The Giants swung around to 1st and 2nd base every now and then, but there they colonized and marked time when Rube was at the helm.

Don't forget the matinee at Struthers' this afternoon. Four o'clock is the hour and the game today will be the pivotal struggle. Everybody turn out and see.

Brodie, Jays and Smith headed the procession of timber workers, with a couple of swats apiece; while Rube and Guerry flickered breezers to the

"BABY-WAKER" SALE.

Each day during the sale some useful article will be placed on sale from 10 to 12 o'clock and prospective buyers are asked to watch the windows each afternoon for announcement. In a half-page advertisement elsewhere in today's paper will be found a few prices that will readily appeal to the careful buyer in view of the near approach of the Fall and Winter.

A Death at Southport.

The death of Mrs. S. M. Robbins, a highly esteemed Southport lady, occurred Sunday morning following a lingering illness. The deceased has many friends in Wilmington and Brunswick county, who will learn of her death with sincere sorrow. Mrs. Robbins was about 35 years old and is survived by two children. The funeral was held from the home yesterday and the remains interred at that place.

FATAL AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT.

Two Ladies Killed and Five Persons Are Injured.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Kankakee, Ill., Aug. 23.—Mrs. Geo. Granger, wife of a retired Kankakee merchant, and Miss Genevieve Rabig, an elocution teacher of Chicago, were instantly killed, and five other occupants of a touring car were seriously injured today when the machine was run over by a Big Four locomotive and caboose in Kankakee.

The party was on the way to Mead Grove cemetery at the time of the accident. A string of cars on a side track obstructed the view of the chauffeur and engineer.

The injured are George Granger, husband of the woman killed; Miss Amelia Forth, sister of Mrs. Granger; Miss Jeannette Granger, a daughter; Paul Granger, a son, and Ira Dole, chauffeur. All were severely hurt except the chauffeur.

Miss Jeannette Granger was found below the body of her mother. She was rescued a few minutes after the accident by jacking up the caboose.

FLEET OFF VIRGINIA CAPES.

Now Engaged in Deep Sea Evolutions and Target Work.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Norfolk, Va., Aug. 23.—Acting Secretary of Navy Winthrop was today with Rear Admiral Schroeder's Atlantic battleship fleet on the Southern Drill Grounds off Cape Henry, where the fleet is now engaged in deep sea evolutions and target work. Just how long Secretary Winthrop will remain with the fleet is not known. He went out early today, and while the desired ocean swell for target firing under rough conditions was lacking, the weather was clear, making gunnery demonstration work as a whole quite satisfactory.

The target work witnessed by Secretary Winthrop today consisted of gunnery aim at target rafts at anchor while the ships steamed over the drill grounds at different speeds.

The scheduled "battle practice" work did not take place today and will not be witnessed by Secretary Winthrop unless he remains with the fleet several days longer.

GEORGIA MAYOR SHOT.

Defendant's Brother Attacked Him After Court—In Serious Condition.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Davisport, Ga., Aug. 22.—J. C. Godfrey, mayor of Davisport, lies at his home here dangerously wounded after a decision made by Godfrey in Mayor's court today in a case against Goron S. Collins, a white. M. M. Collins, brother of the defendant, in the case, approached the mayor after court adjourned and began talking about the case. Hot words followed and before one could interfere Collins shot the mayor with a pistol, the ball entering his right side. Mayor Godfrey fell to the floor and his condition is regarded as serious, and his wound will probably prove fatal. Collins escaped and it is said has not yet been located.

UNIFORM PURE FOOD LAW.

Allowing States to Accept or Reject According to Needs.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Denver, Colo., Aug. 23.—Give us a uniform pure food law which may be accepted or rejected by the individual States and according to its need. A nation should attempt nothing more than the regulation of the inter-State commerce."

This was the slogan set tonight for the opening tomorrow of the 13th convention of the State and National Food and Dairy Departments. That the convention will take definite action for submitting to State Legislatures a "model food bill" was the opinion expressed after a preliminary meeting tonight of a special committee headed by Dr. E. F. Ladd, State food commissioner of North Dakota, and author of the Ladd model food law.

It is the plan to forward the drafted bill after its approval by the convention to the various State Legislatures. Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, who says he is present as a "spectator" is expected to use his influence for the more stringent enforcement of the Federal law as opposed to model "State laws." Secretary Wilson is not a delegate and it is not known whether he will speak. Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief chemist of the department of Agriculture, will confine his remarks to "The Chemistry of Bleached Flour."

FIVE KILLED TWELVE INJURED.

Frightful Result of Explosion of Gas Works.

Geneva, Switzerland, Aug. 23.—Five persons were killed and 12 dangerously injured by an explosion at the city gas works today. The explosion occurred in the purifying chamber between the principal gasometer. A large number of doctors answered the call to attend the wounded, who later were conveyed to the city hospital in ambulances. Thousands of spectators attracted by the explosion and the report that many persons had been killed, crowded around the works, necessitating the closing of places of business near the scene of the disaster.

Two additional bodies were taken out of the remains of the ruins this evening and several additional injured found. Some of the latter are in a desperate condition. The force of the explosion was terrific. The walls of houses nearby were cracked as if shaken by an earthquake. Many of them had to be evacuated.

SUPPRESSING OIL COMPANY.

Sold Out by Texas to Recover Fines of $2,000,000.

Austin, Texas, Aug. 23.—Robert J. Eckhardt, receiver for the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, today filed an inventory of the corporation's Texas property with the clerk of a district court.

Judge Wilcox will now order the sale of the property to the highest bidder. The Waters-Pierce holdings in this State are valued at $2,000,000, which is the amount of the fine recently imposed for alleged violations of the Texas anti-trust statutes.

ENORMOUS CATCH OF MULLET.

Fishing Crew Hauled in Half Million Pounds.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Beaufort, N. C., Aug. 23.—A catch of mullets aggregating half a million pounds, said to be the largest ever known along the Atlantic coast, was made off this port by deep sea fishermen this morning.

The fishermen went to sea early today in search of menhaden but their boats ran into schools of mullets miles long, and each vessel was loaded to the gunwales with them.

The catch was brought to market here and the entire working force available here will be engaged all night in preparing the fish for shipment.

TWO DROWNING TRAGEDIES.

Youth from Norfolk Lost Life at Rocky Mount, N. C.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)
Norfolk, Va., Aug. 23.—Gerhard Lauterbach, aged 16 years, son of Reinhard Lauterbach, was drowned while bathing at Virginia Beach yesterday, but a short distance from shore. Another youth far out, feigning danger, attracted all attention from young Lauterbach, who otherwise might have been rescued.

Grover L. Cuthrell, aged 24, son of Police Captain George L. Cuthrell, of Norfolk, was drowned at Rocky Mount, N. C., while engaged in bridge construction Sunday.

—High Point, Aug. 21.—Quite a stir was created in the recorder's court this morning when Rev. Mr. Tucker, a preacher holding the faith of the Sanctificationists, was arraigned on the charge of abandoning his wife and family. At the instance of his wife a warrant was issued against him several days ago and he was arrested in Asheboro yesterday while holding a revival. Parties interested sought to effect a compromise, but the wife would be satisfied with nothing less than $4 per week, and the preacher, having no coin whatever in his possession, refused to enter into such an agreement. Consequently he was tried and convicted and given three months on the roads of Guilford county. His attorney, E. D. Steele, asked the court to make it thirty days only, but the recorder preferred to wait to see what his neighbors had to say of him and postponed the case till Monday, when the question of the reduction of the sentence will be considered. When passing sentence upon this man Judge Ragan remarked that he doubted the source of a preacher's call being divine when he allowed his wife to suffer for food and clothing.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

Raleigh, Aug. 21.—The bursting of a tire on a big White Steamer automobile driven by its owner, Mr. Hubert Wyatt, this afternoon, caused the machine to swerve from the driveway in the State Hospital grounds and plunge over a 20-foot embankment, turning over a revolution as it went over and landing on its wheels. Miss Ellison, of 415 North Salisbury street, the only lady occupant, sustained painful injuries, the most serious being three broken ribs. Mr. Hoffman, of the Raleigh league ball team, and Mr. Carl Betts were the other passengers.

—High Point, Aug. 22.—A revival in business is felt in all branches of industry here. The Piedmont Hosiery Mills has recently been organized with $40,000 capital stock with J. H. Adams, J. E. Mills, and C. C. Robins as stockholders. A site has been purchased on English street, and a three-story brick building will be erected at an early date in which the company will manufacture all kinds of hosiery. This will make three hosiery mills for High Point. The furniture factories here, of which there are 63, are receiving a marked increase in orders. All are running on full time. One factory has orders on books for 40 car loads to be shipped to the trade as soon as it can be manufactured.

—Thomasville, Aug. 22.—Thomasville is now in a fair way to secure at least one $150,000 cotton mill and has a mighty good chance toward securing another, in the first case if the site is given and just here it may be said that by just a few minutes talk Friday afternoon by a number of the business men of the town, over $2,000 was secured and the arrangements have been made by which a suitable site can be secured and the necessary site offered to clinch the offer made by foreign capitalists. In the second instance the people of the town will subscribe part of the stock equal to the amount of foreign capital. A large part of Thomasville's stock has already been subscribed. With the above proposition presented it seems a fact that Thomasville will secure at least one cotton mill before the close of the year. All the citizens and business men are working harmoniously together and will make the strongest effort possible to get these cotton mills.

—Charlotte Observer, Aug. 23: A well-posted farmer of the Southern portion of the country traversed by Sugar Creek was in the city Saturday, when he remarked to an Observer man that some chemical substance had been deposited in the creek in the past few days which had wrought destruction and almost annihilation among the fish in the stream. They have been dying by thousands. At Long's Mill for instance, a short distance from this city, the dead fish piled up in enormous quantities. Many of them were of the best quality, too. Among their number were noticed carp from 15 to 18 inches long. Aside from the undesirability of such destruction with regard to the value and utility of the fish, such wholesale death among them carries along with it other features of great annoyance, since the water is made unhealthy and the odor of decomposition is unbearable at close range. A similar occurrence happened one or two years ago, the trouble being traced to a substance placed in the water from a local cotton oil mill, but it is not thought that this is altogether an analogous instance.

—Salisbury, Aug. 22.—George P. Turner, a messenger for the Southern Express Company, running between this city and Asheville, was arrested here at an early hour this morning on a warrant sworn out by an official of the company charging him with the theft of certain parcels of money from one of the company's cars. Those interested decline to talk concerning the case, but it is understood that he amount Turner is charged with lifting is something like $3,000. According to the best information obtainable the alleged crime was committed several days ago on the messenger's run into this city. It is alleged that he removed a sealed sack containing $3,000 from the treasure trunk in which parcels of money are usually carried, and dropped it from the train a short distance from Salisbury; that he returned later to the spot and secured the money and then hiked out for South Carolina. The express company put detectives on his trail who shadowed him until he had the temerity to return to Salisbury and then arrested him. The details of the affair have been kept very quiet and it is difficult to state them with accuracy. It is presumed that Turner will have a preliminary hearing tomorrow.

—Mount Airy, Aug. 22.—There was an arrest in this city last night that created intense excitement and will, if the story told by a daughter of Frank A. Martin, a middle-aged white man is true, send him to the electric chair, for the crime is that of outraging his own daughter. The alleged crime was committed night before last while no one was in the house except the perpetrator and his victim, and she, a girl of about 16, was just recovering from a spell of typhoid fever and too weak to scream or offer resistance. When her grandfather, the parent of Martin, called yesterday morning the girl told him the story of her disgrace at the hands of an inhuman father. He promptly had the girl removed to his home for protection and the story leaked out. When Martin was arrested and brought up town a large crowd assembled on the streets and there was considerable indignation, but no threats of lynching. However, Sheriff C. H. Haynes, decided to send his prisoner to the county jail at Dobson and not risk him in the city prison. He will be given a hearing as soon as the young woman is able to testify. While Martin has borne a good reputation in the past there seems to be no doubt of his guilt.

S.S.S. MAKES A LASTING CURE

Not only its proven ability to cure, but its absolute safety as a remedy, has made S.S.S. the most extensively used of all medicines in the treatment of Contagious Blood Poison. Unlike the strong mineral mixtures, which temporarily remove the outward symptoms and shut the disease up in the system, there to carry on its destructive work on the delicate and vital organs, S.S.S. strikes directly at the root, and by purifying the blood of every trace of the virus, completely and permanently cures the trouble. S.S.S. is Nature's blood purifier, harmless in its action and certain in its good results. It is made from a combination of roots and herbs, each of which has a definite and specific action in purifying the blood. Years were spent in selecting and proportioning the different ingredients, but when S.S.S. was perfected it soon demonstrated its superiority over all other blood medicines, and now, after 40 years, it is still the one and only certain cure for Contagious Blood Poison. While driving out the poison from the circulation S.S.S. builds up and strengthens the system by its fine vegetable tonic effects. If you are suffering with Contagious Blood Poison S.S.S. is your most certain reliance, and because of its freedom from mercury, potash or any other mineral, it is absolutely safe for every one. THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Aug. 23.—The cotton market was generally very quiet to-day, becoming a little more active in the late trading when prices sold at the highest point of the day, closing steady at a net advance of 7 to 9 points.

The opening was steady at a decline of 3 points to an advance of 1 point, active months showing little or no change from the closing prices of Saturday, which was about in line with the cables.

Reports that the weather in Texas cleared off with high temperatures over Sunday, promoted some early support on which prices soon sold up to a net advance of 7 to 8 points, but the buying was not aggressive, and while the detailed Texas reports afforded ground for further crop complaints, mid-day fluctuations were narrow and irregular, carrying prices back to within 3 or 4 points of last night's final.

Later New Orleans buying and support from spot houses caused a rally and the market closed within a point of the best. August was more active and ruled relatively firm owing to further decreases in the local stock.

The exceedingly bullish average of Southern crop news is being offset to some extent, apparently by uncertainty regarding the influence of early new crop receipts, which are soon expected to increase and trading is perhaps more in the way of evening up for over the bureau report due next week than in the way of discounting its expected bullish showing.

Southern spot markets officially reported early were generally unchanged, private advices regarding the attitude of early holders are conflicting, but many of them suggest that the South is quite as willing a seller as the mills are buyers around the 12 cent level.

Receipts at the ports today 4,299 bales against 1,238 bales last week and 12,046 last year; for the week 25,000 bales against 14,397 last week and 71,418 last year.

Today's receipts at New Orleans 110 bales against 492 last year and at Houston 6,657 bales against 6,960 last year.

Spot closed quiet; middling uplands 12.75; middling gulf 13.00; sales none. Futures opened steady and closed very steady.

MARKET GOSSIP.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, Aug. 23.—Business on the Stock Exchange fell off in the afternoon session, the volume of transactions up to 2 o'clock barely reaching the average of the first two hours of trading on several days of the past week. Prices rallied somewhat before the last hour when the street received word that Mr. Harriman had sent assurances to his associates from the ship now bringing him to port of his "good condition." Call money varied from 2 1-4 to 2 1-2 per cent. Time accommodations were in light demand with no change.

The bond market was easy with only trading in the better known issues. Total sales per value amounted to $3,385,000. United States government 3s advanced 1-2¢ and the registered 4 1-2 per cent. on call. Total sales stocks today 916,800 shares.

CHICAGO PRODUCE MARKET.

Closing quotations showed net losses of 1 1-4 to 1 1-2¢. Corn was weak on reports of rain in Nebraska and oats were weak because of liberal receipts. Provisions closed firm.
